2.3 Supplementary grants/charged appropriations

(a) During the year, supplementary provision of Rs. 2,07.89 lakhs (about 11 per cent of the original provision) was obtained in March 1977 under 24 grants (Rs. 2,03.46 lakhs) and 5 appropriations (Rs. 4.43 lakhs). Of the total supplementary provision, Rs. 1, 11.41 lakhs were obtained in 23 cases in the Revenue Section and Rs. 92.05 lakhs were obtained in 9 cases in the Capital Section. In the charged appropriations, Rs. 2.17 lakhs were provided in 5 cases in the Revenue Section and Rs. 2.26 lakhs in 1 case in the Capital Section.

(b) The details of significant cases of unnecessary, excessive and inadequate supplementary grants are given below:

(i) Unnecessary supplementary grants:

In the following cases, the supplementary grants of Rs. 22.40 lakhs in 7 grants in the Revenue Section and Rs.9.96 lakhs in 2 grants in the Capital Section were unnecessary as the expenditure did not come up even to the original provision. Number and name of grant Original Supplemen Expendi

2.5 Non-receipt of explanations for savings/excesses

After the close of a financial year, the detailed Appropriation Accounts showing the final grants/appropriations, the actual expenditure and the resultant variations are sent to the Controlling Officers, requiring them to explain the variations in general and those in important heads in particular. As in the previous year, the reasons for variations were not furnished in time to Audit by the Controlling Officers. Such delays in the submission of material for Appropriation Accounts result in the Report being incomplete in certain essential respects.

As regards the Appropriation Accounts 1976-77, explanations for variations were not received (June 1978) in the case of 64 out of 142 heads. These formed 45 per cent of the number of heads, the variations in which were required to be explained.

CHAPTER III

RESULTS OF AUDIT SECTION I — CIVIL DEPARTMENTS FOOD AND SUPPLY DEPARTMENT

3.1 Shortage of foodgrains

Prior to September 1975, foodgrains (controlled commodities) were being lifted by the wholesalers from the godown of the Food Corporation of India at Siliguri (West Bengal) for distribution to the retailers and the consumers all over the State of Sikkim. From September 1975, the department started distribution to the wholesalers from 14 centres all over the State and hired godowns at these centres for that purpose. Prescribed quarterly verification of stocks was not done. When physical verification of stocks was done in November 1976, value of foodgrains (rice, sugar, maida and suji) found short at two centres in excess of the permissible limits worked out to Rs.1.98 lakhs.

The Government stated (February 1978) that Rs.3,547 had been recovered from the concerned officials and prosecution in a court had been launched against them for the balance loss. Further developments are awaited (June 1978).

SECTION II

REVENUE RECEIPTS

3.2 Income Tax 3.2.1 Introduction

Income tax was first levied in Sikkim from April 1948. The procedure for the levy, assessment and collection of the tax was laid down in the rules contained in the Sikkim State Income Tax Manual. These rules provided for the levy of tax of income from business, agricultural produce, salaries, patta estate* and principal loans in cash or kind. The tax on agricultural produce was, however, withdrawn in April 1950. In the case of business, the tax was leviable not on the income from profits made in the business but on the gross sale proceeds in a year. In April 1958 the works contractors were made liable to tax on the basis of the gross cheque amount of the bill less the cost of materials issued. In April 1970, income accruing or arising directly from the properties situated in the bazar areas was also made liable for this tax.

When Sikkim became a State of the Indian Union from 26th April 1975, income tax was continued to be levied by the State Government and the proceeds were retained by it. The Indian Income tax Act, 1961, has not been extended to Sikkim (June 1978).

* Patta estate income means the difference between whatever money a landlord of an estate realises from the Bustiwallas of his estate and whatever amount he pays to Government.

The tax was, however, levied on sourcewise income in excess of the following ceiling limits as laid down in the Sikkim State Income Tax Manual;

	Source of income	Ceiling limit of tax free income
(i)	Business	Gross sale proceeds upto Rs. 2,000 per year
(ii)	Salaries	Rs. 200 per month.
(iii)	Patta Estate	Profits upto Rs. 2,000 per year.
(iv)	Principal loans in cash or kind	Rs.2,000 in cash/100 muries * in kind per year.

Charitable institutions are exempt from income tax.

3.2.2 Trend of collection

The actual amounts of tax collected and the uncollected amount at the end of the two years ending March 1977 as furnished by the department (June 1977) are indicated below:—

	Arrears at the begi- nning of the year	Demand raised during the year		lance as on 31st March

1976-77	15.25	12.36	12.42	15.19

3.2.3 Procedure for assessment of tax

The Sikkim State Income Tax Manual does not prescribe either the filing of any returns by the assesses or for passing formal orders of assessment in each case by the assessing authority. The income estimated and the tax determined by the assessing authority in each case are entered in a register, which forms the basis for the issue of demand notice. The rules do not also provide for aggregating the various categories of income received by an assessee for the purpose of levy of tax but income under each category is separately estimated and taxes at the slab rate after allowing the benefit of tax-free income available in the first slab of each source of income.

** Arrears as on 26.4.1975.

* One murie is equivalent to 72.72 Kgs. (approximately)

3.2.4 Following points were noticed in the course of test audit.

(i) Non-levy of penalty

In terms of an order issued by Government in December 1973, an assessee defaulting in the payment of the income tax within three months from the date of issue of demand notice is liable to pay penalty at the rate 20 per cent of the amount of tax as penalty. No such penalty was, however, levied in 1, 195 cases during the period falling between 26.4.1975 and 31.3.1977. The loss of revenue on account of the non-levy of the mandatory penalty had not been estimated.

The matter was reported to Government in June 1977. Government, while accepting the objection, stated (September 1977) that penalty had been levied only in few cases and it would be levied in all cases in future.

(ii) Non-levy of interest

In December 1973 Government issued an order to the effect that interest at 12 per cent per annum was leviable for the period of default if the amount of tax demanded was not paid by the assessees on or before the due date mentioned in the demand notice served on them. No such interest had been levied or collected by the department in all cases resulting in non-levy of interest of Rs.17,000. When this was pointed out in audit (June 1977), the department agreed (June 1977) to realise the dues after verification. Further report is awaited (June 1978).

The matter was reported to Government in July 1977. Government stated (September 1977) that interest had been levied only in few cases and would be strictly levied in all cases in future.

(iii) Principal loans in cash not taxed

Tax at the rate of 3 per cent was leviable from April 1948 on the principal amount of all loans in cash in excess of Rs.2,000 and 100 muries in kind. Tax had not been levied in any such cases. The loss of revenue on this account could not be estimated as no details of such loans had been collected or maintained by the department. When this was pointed out in audit (June 1977), the department agreed (June 1977) to reopen past cases and also levy tax on such cases in future.

The matter was reported to Government in July 1977; reply is awaited (June 1978).

3.3 Sales tax

3.3.1 Introductory

There is no Sales Tax Act in Sikkim. A tax on the sales of goods in Sikkim was first introduced by a Government order issued in August 1947. Detailed rules for the levy, assessment and collection of the tax were laid down in a notification issued by Government in March 1952. In November 1965, Government directed that sales tax should not be levied on purchases made by certain specified merchants, who were paying tax directly to Government. Collections of the tax are made on the basis of these orders, even after Sikkim became a State of the Union of India from 26th April 1975.

The tax is assessed on the basis of statements of accounts of sales of goods furnished by the dealers. There is no provision in these rules for the assessments being made on any other basis but actually they are largely made on the basis of estimates of turnover made by the assessing officer.

- 3.3.2 In the course of test audit the following points were noticed:
- (i) Prior to March 1975, sales tax collected by Government from dealers having their shops in the private estate of the former Ruler was being remitted to the Ruler, after deducting 10 per cent thereof as collection charges. In March 1975 Government decided that this practice should be stopped forthwith and the payments made to the Ruler from 16th August 1971 to March 1975 should also be recovered from him. In February 1976, demand was made on the estate of the former Ruler for the refund of tax of Rs.1,75,190 paid by Government on this account during the period 16th August 1971 to 31st March 1975 but the amount had not been refunded (March 1978). According to the legal opinion obtained by Government in April 1976, the dues could be recovered from any amounts due to the former Ruler or by recourse to a suit in a Court. No action had been initiated to effect the recovery of these dues of Rs.1,75,190 (June 1978).
- (ii) In the assessment of two dealers for the years 1974-75 and 1975-76 and of one dealer for the year 1975-76, the closing stock of the previous years had not been taken into account but tax had been assessed only on the sales out of the purchases made during the year. The sales made out of the opening stocks had not been ascertained and subjected to tax. The loss of revenue on account of this under-assessment could not be estimated in audit.

The points referred to in the foregoing paragraphs were reported to Government in October 1977; final reply is awaited ( June 1978 ).

3.4 Amusement tax

According to the information furnished by the department, there are in all three cinema houses in the State. Besides, temporary permits are also issued for running cinemas during melas. No rule or any executive instructions or notifications had been issued by Government authorising the levy of such amusement tax. Such taxes levied prior to 26th April 1975, in accordance with the terms of agreements executed with the cinema-house owners at rates laid down therein, continued to be levied even after that date. In respect of cinemas run in the melas, tax is levied and recovered in lump on the basis of a daily rate. The local Self Government Department gets the tickets for cinema shows printed at the Government Press, puts its rubber seal thereon and then issues them to the cinema-house owners on pre-payment of the tax along with the cost of printing of the tickets.

A test audit of the records connected with the realisation of tax disclosed that no formal order of assessment of tax was being made in any case and no checks were also being carried out periodically to ensure that the admissions to the cinema shows are made only on the basis of the tax-paid tickets.

No consolidated stock account of the tickets showing opening balance, receipt, issue and the closing balance was also being maintained. Only two separate accounts were maintained showing the receipt and issues of tickets. But no supporiting documentary evidence indicating the number of receipts from the Government Press was available with the department to enable verification of receipts and proper accounting of the printed tickets.

When the matter was pointed out in audit (June 1977), the department stated (June 1977) that it had been decided to realise tax by requiring affixation of stamps on the tickets and that arrangements had been made to print the stamps. Further developments are awaited (June 1978).

The matter was reported to Government in July 1977; reply is awaited (June 1978).

1. Performance of tyres

The General Manager, Sikkim Nationalised Transport, fixed (March 1977) the minimum life of a commercial tyre at 20,000 km. keeping in view the bad condition of roads and steep climbs that the vehicles had to undertake. It was also laid down that in case a tyre was scrapped before attaining the minimum life, the tyre issuing authorities, viz. Superintending Engineer (Mechanical) and Station in-charge, should record the reasons for scrapping the tyre prematurely.

During 1976-77, 213 tyres at Gangtok and 129 tyres at Rangpo were scrapped before these had completed 20,000 km. The deficiency in the tyre-run worked out to a little under 20 per cent of the desired run, leading to a loss of about Rs.0.63 lakh, calculated with reference to the purchase value of the tyres. The reasons for premature scrapping of tyres were not recorded.

The matter was reported to Government in January 1977; reply is awaited (June 1978).
